Social Justice Assignment

Social justice is when something is unreasonable within society or around the world. There are many different unjust things that happen in our local towns, countries or even other countries all around the world. The government treat a lot of people unfairly today and I am going to discuss one of these groups which I believe are being treated wrongly is people who are living in government housing that is being vandalised or in threat or vandalism.

Government housing is safe and affordable housing for people in need, low income, homeless, crisis accommodation or abuse in the home provided by the government. It began in 1945 when the Commonwealth Government's main housing program was started by the Commonwealth State Housing Agreement (CSHA). A series of financial agreements that were being negotiated between the Commonwealth and the states on their view to provide assistance to people in need delayed the program though, so it didn't start immediately.

There are many ways that this group is underprivileged. I am going to outline just a few things. Firstly the lack of housing, there isn't enough housing to go around, so much that people are living on the streets, having to beg for money to buy their clothes or food. There are a number of people who can't go back to their own homes for various reasons such as abuse or harassment. These people would normally take refuge in government housing but if there isn't any where
